Distinguished Ladies and Gentlemen

INTRODUCTION

It is always a joyous moment on occasions like this, with your family and friends gathered to celebrate the achievements of our graduands.

You have come a long way and through thick and thin you have braved the academic storm and are today proudly adorning your beautiful gowns as graduates.

On the one hand we are extremely excited over your achievement and prospect for the future as you step out into the world, but on the other hand, for most of us here it is a moment of grief knowing that your time here at Wisconsin potentially ends today.

Know that the time spent with you while you were here will forever remain in our memories and in our hearts. We are hopeful that many of you will continue to stick around as you transition into post-graduate studies at our School of Research and Graduate Studies.

For those who will end up elsewhere, whether in the world of work or back in the classroom, remember that the umbilical cord and bond created over the few years of your time while at Wisconsin should never be broken. Go out into the world, knowing that you are carrying the badge of Wisconsin University College having at the back of your mind that in whatever you do, you are representing each and everyone of us here as worthy ambassadors.

Graduands, your journey through tertiary education has been one of dedication, hard work, and resilience. Today, as we gather here to acknowledge your achievements, let us also reflect on the theme of this occasion which is "Redefining the Boundaries of Tertiary Education in the Age of Artificial Intelligence", which is of great significance in our rapidly evolving technology-driven world.

The world we live in is changing at an unprecedented pace, largely driven by the transformative power of artificial intelligence. As we embrace this era, it is essential that we consider how it affects the very foundation of education. Tertiary education, once perceived as a static path, is now evolving to meet the needs of a dynamic and technology-driven society. Wisconsin International University College, Ghana has always strived for excellence, and in this age of AI, we must continue to do so through our unique practical learning.

We acknowledge our responsibility as guardians of education who must redefine the boundaries of tertiary education to prepare our graduates not just for today, but for the challenges of tomorrow. This means embracing AI as a powerful tool to enhance research, teaching and learning, foster critical thinking as well as cultivate innovative problem-solving skills. However, we must also remember that the essence of education extends beyond technical knowledge. Our mission is not only to impart information but to cultivate wisdom, empathy, and adaptability. That is why we continue to make relevant investments in the right areas because we understand that knowledge alone is not enough; it must be accompanied by practical skills and experience.

Ladies and gentlemen, artificial intelligence, when integrated with practical teaching, becomes a powerful ally in preparing our graduates for the challenges of the future. As you, our graduates, step out into the world, you carry with you not only the knowledge you've acquired but also the hands-on experience that sets you apart.

The deployment of artificial intelligence in our teaching methodologies through the use of state-of-the-art practical learning tools such as the state-of-the-art Nursing Skills Laboratory, the School of Communication Studies' Broadcasting Studio, our well-stocked library and ICT laboratory provides students with the opportunity to gain real-world experience in a controlled environment while providing the resources necessary to support both traditional and digital learning. These initiatives represent our dedication to redefining the boundaries of tertiary education.

With all these tools, you have been taught to adapt and innovate in the face of change, and this is your greatest asset in the age of artificial intelligence. Wisconsin International University College, Ghana, is proud to lead the way in this endeavor, and we are excited to see how you will shape the future with the skills and knowledge you have gained here. As you embrace this new chapter in your lives, remember that your practical education equips you to be leaders, problem solvers, and agents of change.

I know you are more convinced by now that you made the right decision in choosing Wisconsin International University College Ghana for this journey. You may have come to realize that we are more than just an educational institution. We are a beacon of excellence, deeply committed to delivering an exceptional learning experience.

Go out into the world and manifest this. Make the headlines and make us proud wherever you find yourself just as your predecessors have. To share some of this with you, we woke up to a refreshing news from Missouri in the United States of America where a past student of our University,

Walter Drah Junior who was honored and presented with a Certificate of Distinction after earning a GPA of 3.97 from his Master of Science in Cybersecurity programme. This certificate of distinction is awarded to a student with a GPA of 3.95 or higher, and Walter surpassed this threshold.

At the recently held induction ceremony of the Ghana Bar Association, it didn't come as a surprise when as many as 61 students of Wisconsin Law Faculty, more than twice the number from last year, were among those called to the Bar. This achievement not only reflects the quality of teaching and mentorship we offer, but also a proof of the high standards of Wisconsin in the league of best universities in the country.

The list is endless. It takes hard work, dedication and the enabling environment which we have provided for you to succeed and make you competitive in the world of work.

SCHOOL OF RESEARCH AND GRADUATE STUDIES

WIUC-GH's postgraduate programmes are designed to prepare graduates for strategic leadership roles within the private and public sectors in Ghana and beyond. As you may be aware, increased competition in the job market has reduced the value of the first degree. In light of this and in line with recent trends and our commitment to inclusivity, I am happy to inform you that the university now admits applicants with third-class qualifications into our Master of Business Administration programme. Additionally, Wisconsin University has reviewed its MBA fees downward by almost 50% reduction.

The reduction in fees is a promotional discount as part of measures by the University aimed at mitigating the economic hardship on Ghanaian students.

This opportunity is here for you to seize as a stepping stone to your professional success. Please do well to also inform your other colleagues and family who are not here presently. It is important to note that all our programmes are fully accredited by the Ghana Tertiary Education Commission and affiliated with the leading public universities in the country, including the University of Ghana, Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology, University of Cape Coast, and the University for Development Studies.

Each of these new programmes will offer admissions each semester with study options for Weekday Evening Session and Weekends Only Session.

The Department Of Operations Management And Information Studies (OMIS)

After careful consideration of programmes that are currently running at the Graduate School, it has become necessary to pool together programmes that are founded on disciplines that interact very closely with each other under one department called the Department of Operations Management and Information Systems (OMIS). BUSINESS SCHOOL

MoUs with professional bodies:

The Business School, as part of efforts at bridging the gap between the classroom and industry, has entered into agreement with a number of professional institutions to enable its students and alumni start their professional journey during their university education and while earning the prestigious professional qualification designation status. It is hopeful that the collaboration with these influential professional bodies will place graduates of Wisconsin University College in good stead to be competitive in the job market. These institutions include.

- The Institute of Chartered Accountants (Gh);
- Chartered Institute of Bankers (Gh); and,
- Chartered Institute of Marketing (Gh).

Pursue the establishment of the Entrepreneurship and Innovation Hub:

To enable the School reach out for grant from the National Entrepreneurship and Innovation Programme (NEIP) from the Office of the President. There are positive signs we might get the grant in the form of equipment and minimal working capital before the end of the year.

In its drive to increase student numbers, the Business School has considered research paper presented by one of its lecturers, Mr. Prince Kusi-Mensah in which he posited that we:

- We lay less emphasis on the age-old traditional newspaper and TV modes of advertising;
- Focus, more on face to face, word of mouth marketing by students.
- Enhance Quality teaching by lecturers;
- Efficiency in our internal processes both academic and administration.
- Financial wellness programme that provides students with opportunities that help them increase their knowledge, skills and confidence to become financially empowered;
- Virtual Entrepreneurship hub/Academic incubators;
- Local and foreign scholarships;
- Recruit via WIUC students' portal;
- Video marketing; Content marketing; and,
- Distance learning; On-Line learning.

Entrepreneurship and Innovation degree programme:

The Business School has approved a proposal meant for a new degree Programme in Entrepreneurship and Innovation subject to approval by the Academic Board, GTEC and our

SCHOOL OF COMMUNICATION STUDIES

The BA Communication Studies programme continues to churn out very competent communication experts who are providing excellent services in Journalism, Public Relations and Advertising as well as related services such as Human Resources, Administration, Customer Service, Production, among others.

The School of Communication Studies has introduced a 2-year practical Diploma for those who, for various reasons, may not be able to pursue a 4-year degree programme. The School is also preparing to introduce a certificate course in broadcast journalism for practising radio journalists as well.

In response to demands from the public, the School has introduced a weekend stream in addition to its regular and evening sessions.

KUMASI CAMPUS

The Kumasi campus opened for students after accreditation had been granted for the institution as well as the programmes in Law and Nursing on 4th September 2019. Since then, the Kumasi Campus is making steady progress in its academic work as well as in the development of the campus in general.

Programmes Accredited by the Ghana Tertiary Education Commission (GTEC) are as follows:

- i. Nursing;
- ii. Law;
- iii. Business Studies;
- iv. Computing and Technology; and,
- v. Communication Studies.

Student enrolment at the Kumasi Campus saw a marginal increase population from 1346 (April 2023) to 1368 (October 2023) with majority being Nursing as of July 2021. Faculty of Law had 63 while Business School had 33 students.

Future Outlook

- The future of the Kumasi Campus looks very bright as commuting to and from Kumasi is much easier now, thanks to the construction of the main Feyiase road.
- More and more publicity is being carried out and the Campus is becoming known in the greater Kumasi area.

WISCONSIN CENTRE FOR PROFESSIONAL STUDIES (WCPS)

In line with its plan to expand the Centre's scope in terms of the variety of courses in response to the different training needs of participants, the Centre of Professional Studies has chalked a major landmark achievement in the year under review with the introduction of Neurodiagnostics Technology training open to any capable person with a genuine desire to join the allied health field.

OET Center

Wisconsin International University College has been commissioned as the first centre in Ghana to run a paper-based Occupational English Test for Ghanaian trained health professionals looking to practice abroad. Thankfully the first test was conducted successfully only a few months ago.

The Wisconsin Centre for Professional continues to run various certificate and diploma courses in Paralegal Studies, Advanced Investigations, Fingerprint Science & Biometric Science Studies, Crime Scene Forensics and Forensic Intelligence, Health and Safety, Music, Accounting, Banking and Finance with certification in ICAG, ACCA, CIB, FRM, CFA, etc.

MUSIC

Aside our flagship certificate programmes such as Piano and Jazz Studies, Audio Recording Engineering/Music Production, General Concert Instrumental Proficiency (Including Voice Studies), and Music in Worship (for Church Music Leadership) which are all currently being run at the Music department, I am happy to inform you all that admission is ongoing for the Diploma and Bachelor of Art Music which has been running for a semester now. Areas to be covered include: Film Music and Production, Concert and Events Planning, the Special Performing Artiste Programme and Musicology.

CAREER COUNSELLING & PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

This University College believes in combining experiential learning with theory. Through internships, work placements and industry training provided at the Career and Counselling Services Centre, many of our graduates have had the opportunity to develop technical and soft skills relevant to industry.

I am delighted to inform you that the career development sessions offered by the Career Counselling Services Centre have been restructured with the appointment of a new head to continue to offer career services to students in preparing them for jobs and building a professional network in addition to its new role of providing guidance and counselling services to students.

INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

At WIUC-GH we are proud to truly embody our international identity. We have students from over 21 countries and staff from nearly 9 countries. Since September 2017, WIUC-GH has undertaken to offer free processing of non-citizens' ID cards and residence permits for all duly registered international students. This is aimed at reducing international students' financial burden and the inconvenience of having to process these documents themselves. This is also done in order to comply with immigration regulations.

TO THE CLASS OF 2023

We may have done our best to prepare you for the future but certain lessons are reserved for the 'University of Life' in the real world out there.

My dear graduands, you have studied and acquired knowledge and skills which have made you competent. Your competency has given you an edge over other people for those of you already working, it is your competency which has given you jobs. Similarly, for those graduands who are yet to be employed, it is your competency which will get you jobs. Sometimes, your competency makes you think and feel you are self-contained. Let me use this platform to remind you that you in fact acquired no competency on your own. Your competency has been given to you by God Almighty and so please seek humility and it will enrich your competency.

As you depart from the gates of Wisconsin we hope that the Graduating Class of 2023 will go into your various places of work with a high sense of ingenuity, grit and innovation in your approach to real time challenges.

Remember you will also remain a part of Wisconsin, and Wisconsin will be a part you.

Class of 2023: I wish you every success in your life's journey.

Please accept my warmest congratulations.

SCHOOL ANTHEM

STANZA 1

Wisconsin International University is calling!
We're calling Sons and Daughters to the Gate of Truth and Light:
The Home where Leaders are made in International Education
To stand for Wisdom, Knowledge and Strength to serve a world in Love.

CHORUS:

Arise, Oh great Wisconsin 2x
A world in need is waiting
For the home where leaders are made
In International Education to
Stand for Wisdom, Knowledge and Strength
To serve a world in love.

STANZA 2

In harmony we seek for peace and freedom- truth and knowledge;
In service to our generation we forever stand;
To do the best that we can, as we would have the world to appreciate
The gift of education with the great Wisconsin touch!

CHORUS:

Arise, Oh great Wisconsin 2X
A world in need is waiting
For the home where leaders are made
in International Education to
Stand for Wisdom, Knowledge and Strength
To serve a world in love.

NATIONAL ANTHEM

God bless our homeland Ghana,
And make our nation great and strong,
Bold to defend forever
The cause of Freedom and of Right;
Fill our hearts with true humility,
Make us cherish, fearless honesty,
And help us to resist oppressors rule
With all our will and might for evermore.

Second stanza:

Hail to thy name, O Ghana,
To thee we make our solemn vow:
Steadfast to build together
A nation strong in Unity;
With our gifts of mind and strength of arm,
Whether night or day, in the midst of storm,
In every need, whatever the call maybe,
To serve thee, Ghana, now and evermore.
